“ I am so grateful to have been a part of the team of caregivers that were able to help Barry stay in his own home. Barry was such a kind, funny, enjoyable person to be with. While I cooked his dinner, he usually kept me company by filling me in on whether anything exciting had happened around the condo that day. He would tell me about the visitors that he had or if the hummingbirds had been to the feeders that day. He so admired all of the lights that the neighbors displayed on their balconies at Christmas. I was happy to bring some lights and garland and bows and decorate the balcony for him. He so looked forward to the lights coming on at dark. I think he liked thinking that he had a little competition going for the best-lighted balcony. I miss visiting with Barry and will always remember how fondly he spoke of his family, their dogs, and his and his wife's travels. I thank God for allowing me to be a part of Barry's life.

I am happy to have been part of Barry's team. We enjoyed breakfast together so many times. He was a lover of breakfast. Pancakes, waffles and his favorite "bacon". Oh how I'd loved it. We became great friends. We made trips out for haircuts and hearing aid checks and to the Elks Lodge. He loved talking about Milwaukee, and Grinnell College. This journey has come to the end but what a beautiful one he has begun. We will meet again!
