

Anatoly Fesiuk

September 26, 1955 - June 21, 2022

Anatoly was born on September 26, 1955 in the city of Rokitno, Rovinska Oblast, Ukraine. He was the son of Peter and Feodosya Fesiuk, one of 5 children.

Anatoly went to college for Mechanical Engineering and served in the USSR Military. He committed his life to Jesus and was baptized in 1977.

On November 11, 1978 Anatoly married the love of his life, Liubov Ostapovich and they went on to have 7 children together. They were married for 43 years.

Anatoly was a gifted songwriter and musician who had the ability to play most instruments. He taught his children music and formed the family band 'Jhatva'. They spent their childhood traveling, ministering and singing all over the world. He gave his life in service to Jesus and people. He always said; ' This is the most important work, we'll find the resources and finances, don't worry but we must do this'.

He laughed often and shared stories. He lived life fully and embraced every adventure. He loved his family very much and always championed every endeavor his children set out to accomplish. He was very loved by all.

Anatoly is survived by his wife, Liubov Fesiuk, his sons; Leo, Sergio, Yury and David. His daughters; Liudmila, Elena and Tanya, their spouses, and 11 grandchildren.

The Fesiuk Family would like to thank everyone for their expressions of love and kindness during this difficult time. All the words, visits, prayers, text messages, phone calls and meals have meant so much to us; More then we can say.
