

Anna Ostapovich

January 1, 1952 - October 11, 2022

Anna was born on January 1st, 1952, in Serniky, Rivenska Oblast, Ukraine. She was a daughter of Oleksii and Hanna Klimovich, one of 8 children.

Anna went to a local school and in her teenage years, committed her life to Jesus and was baptized in 1968.

On January 12, 1975, Anna married the love of her life Leonty Ostapovich and they went on to have 8 children together. They were happily married for almost 48 years.

Anna was a loving, kind, and wise spouse. She was truly the greatest mother, who gave all of herself for the sake of her children.

Anna lived life fully and embraced everything in her life as a gift from God. She never became bitter despite life circumstances and her infirmities. She loved her family very much. She was loved very much by all, and her legacy will live on in our hearts and memories.

Anna had a genuinely generous heart. Her selfless and kind heart was part of her daily life. She would regularly send packages to families in need in Ukraine and she continued doing this despite her illness and selflessly gave until the last month of her life. This was her passion.

Anna is survived by her husband Leonty; her brother Oleksi Klimovich; her children: Alexander, Svitlana, Viacheslav, and Leonty jr.; their spouses, and 3 grandchildren.

The Ostapovich Family would like to thank everyone for their expressions of love & kindness during this difficult time. We are grateful for your kind words, visits, prayers, messages, phone calls, and meals. They mean more than you know.
