

Mrs. Barbara Jayne Doig

October 7, 1923 - March 30, 2017

Barbara Jayne Doig of Hendersonville, North Carolina went home into the arms of Jesus on Thursday, March 30, 2017 at the age of 93. She passed away peacefully at The Laurels Rehabilitation Center in the presence of her family.

Jayne was born on October 7, 1923 in Albany, New York the daughter of Chester and Lena Davis. She moved to Clearwater, Florida in 1961 then to Fairview, North Carolina in 1984 and finally Hendersonville in 2010 where she resided at Heritage Hills retirement center for the past several years.

Jayne received Jesus Christ as her Savior and Lord in 1965 and grew in her faith and her love for Jesus becoming a strong influence on her family and many, many others. In part because of her each member of her family became a Christian. She was a lifelong mentor of others, especially women in her later years.

She is survived by her loving husband of 57 years Alexander Doig, her daughter Peggie Jayne Medley and her son Richard Doig, granddaughters Suzie Philbeck, Jamie Shea, Heather Medley, Amy Czajkowski, Katy Barber, Christy Meyers and 17 great grandchildren.

A celebration of her life will be held at Heritage Hills retirement community on May 13, 2017 at 2:00 p.m.
