“ Maddy first introduced us to Ben late senior year at Asheville High. Soon after he became family. Ben was a kind sweet soul who jumped at the chance to help others, loved animals-especially his and Maddy's Guppy, and always went out of his way to make those around him feel loved and appreciated. He was a goofball who loved poutine and wore his Canadian nationality proudly. I will always remember the fun times at the Thompson farm, our wedding, birthdays, Christmases, bowling nights, and silly dinners at our house. It was a pleasure watching you transform from a highschooler to a handsome and dedicated man getting your degree and following your passion of helping animals. You are so very loved and will be forever missed. Love Always, Cate, Chad, and Maggie Battles ❤️🐾❤️

“ Though we hadn't been close in a while, Ben used to be my best friend. He was there for me during a time when I needed him and his winning smile most - middle school. I would half-heartedly make fun of him for being Canadian, and he would half-heartedly make fun of me for being a huge dork. We would spend hours and hours playing RuneScape together. I guess we were both huge dorks. I can't accurately express how much his friendship meant to me, or how it impacted my life. I'm not sure if he ever knew. I'm really going to miss him. He was a good one.

“ One thing that I will remember most about Ben is his smile. His smile was one of those that could just lighten the mood in any room as soon as he walked in. Anyone who knew Ben knows that even as big as his smile was, it couldn't even compare to the size of his heart. Ben was such a caring person, who would help anyone with anything. Cat (Mum to many of us here) had a saying "Help all, harm none." Ben was as close to the embodiment of this saying that you can get. Between all of his friends, family and animals he cared about them all. Ben, you left an impact on my life and losing you takes a piece of my heart that can never be replaced, but I know it's not goodbye for good. Until we meet again I will love and miss you.

“ I can't believe this Ben.. I guess heaven just couldn't wait to have such a special soul amongst all the other Angels. I can't find all of our pictures, I'm hoping your Mom has some, maybe Maddy has others. I miss you, I love you, and though I'll never understand this - I know you're in blissful peace. Don't worry, I'll be calling Mum daily and helping her any way that I can. Please just help guide all your loved ones left behind <3 I love you so very much, you touched my life in ways I could never have imagined. Your genuine, loving, compassionate nature truly make you one of a kind. And your sense of humor (or should I say sarcasm) was always hilarious! I'm so sorry you had to go so soon. You will be missed and mourned by many.

Love,

“ I was brand new at Reach. Didn't really know anyone yet. Ben was eating poutine in the records room. I followed the food smell and there he was. We talked about different places to get good meals and laughed at the bad meals. He made me feel so welcome at my new job. Like a member of the family. I will miss Ben's warm smile and sweet personality very much.
