

Beverly Carlock

April 11, 1949 - January 30, 2025

Beverly Carlock, 75, of Asheville, NC, passed away peacefully on January 30, 2025, with her beloved partner, Glenn Iannicelli, and son, Alex Carlock by her side. She was born in Lynn, MA, and is remembered as a loving mother, sister, aunt, and friend.

Beverly's legacy of kindness, compassion, and service lives on through her family. She is survived by her son, Alex Carlock; her partner, Glenn Iannicelli; her brother, Lee Pollard; her sister, Holly Walker; and her nieces and nephews, Emily, Tara, Megan, Dan, and Paige, along with their children. She was preceded in death by her parents, Stanley and Patricia Pollard; and her sister Meredith.

A graduate of New York University, Beverly earned both a Bachelor's degree in 1971 and a Master's degree in 1975. She worked as a Licensed Social Worker in Westchester County, NY, from 1976 to 2007, after which she retired. In 2015, Beverly moved to Asheville where she continued to live with grace and purpose.

Beverly led a deeply spiritual life as a devoted follower of the Siddha Yoga path, finding peace and strength through her beliefs. Her giving spirit extended beyond her family as she supported causes close to her heart, including Prasad (www.Prasad.org), Disabled American Veterans (www.dav.org)

g/ways-to-give), and Tibet Charity (<http://tibetcharity.in/donate/>).

A gathering to honor and celebrate Beverly's life will be held at 2:00 pm on Sunday, March 9th, at the home of Glenn Iannicelli, 102 Pebble Creek Drive, Asheville, NC.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the charities listed above in Beverly's memory.
