“ I knew Christine in our early 20s when we worked at Darryl's. Christine was a free spirit, kind, loving, and non judgmental. My heart goes out to her family and those who loved her.

“ I am so sorry to hear that Christine has passed. I will truly miss her. I always enjoyed our conversations during her walks with Ami, Mardis, and Loki. I have a special memory of Christine and I teaming up for weeks to rescue Mavis, the beautiful Siamese cat, who turned out to be expecting. Christine made sure the kittens found good homes, and kept Mavis and her two siblings. I will never forget the time when I was feeling sad, crying in my driveway, and Christine gave me the warmest, most comforting hug—I will carry that memory with me forever.

Christine, I know you're now reunited with your beloved husband, David, in Heaven. May you both rest in eternal peace and comfort and soar with the Heavenly Angels. I will miss you and am so grateful for all the meaningful talks we had during your walks in the neighborhood. Thank you for being such a bright and caring presence in my life.
