“ This past week I have been thinking about what to write since it was 1 year ago that Jonathan passed away. Jonathan used to play the trumpet when he was young. I was originally wanting to find a trumpeter playing Holy, Holy, Holy since that is the song God's angels sing in heaven. However, I could not find anything good online. So last night I prayed and asked God to show me what to post in remembrance of Jonathan. This morning, one of my phone Bible apps was 1 Samuel 18:4 "And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle." - this was so like my brother Jonathan - he was a giver and not a taker. Jonathan was willing to give his jacket if someone needed it. He was willing to give whatever he could...I have received daily Bible verses for several years and not once did any of them pertain to Jonathan and David until today! I thank my Heavenly Father for showing me His Word in remembrance of my brother.

Jonathan, I was supposed to visit you at your place in Asheville, North Carolina on Friday, July 26, 2019. I was looking forward to seeing you. Now, I will have to wait to see in heaven. I am in mourning, but I am happy that you are no longer in pain. I am sad, but I am glad that you are not suffering or in discomfort.

“ I was so sad to hear about Johnathan. I have many good memories of him over the years, he was like a big brother to me. He always took the time to ask how I was doing and showed a genuine interest no matter how busy he was. Sending my love and prayers your way.

Thank you, Charlotte. God has been comforting us and reminding us of the good times we had with Jonathan. He has also promised us that even better times are coming, and we have all eternity to enjoy them.
