

Leo J Laubengeiger

September 29, 1928 - February 17, 2023

Leo Laubengeiger of Hendersonville passed away on February 17, 2023, at Hendersonville Health and Rehabilitation. He is survived by his wife of 64 years, Anne, and three children; Larry (Bernadette Hruby) of Baraboo, WI, Claire Ungerer (Michael) of East Flat Rock, Marni Laubengeiger of Greenville, SC, his sister, Claire Gregory of Lakeville, PA, and twelve nieces and nephews.

Leo was born in Irvington, NJ, on September 29, 1928. He was predeceased by his parents Leo and Marie Laubengeiger and his sister Mary Ann Ziliotto.

Leo was a graduate of Bloomfield High School (NJ) and served a machinist apprenticeship at Westinghouse Electric Company. He was a long-time employee of Bell Telephone Laboratories until his retirement in 1994.

After retirement, Leo and Anne moved from New Jersey to Western North Carolina where they made their home outside of Saluda, adjacent to the Greenville Watershed. There they enjoyed the peaceful woodland setting of their log home.

Over the years, Leo enjoyed good times with his family, fostered and rescued several dogs, hiked, and occasionally camped. he was somewhat of a homebody who frequently tackled auto repairs and home improvement projects. He loved dancing and was particularly adept at the jitterbug.

Leo was a parishioner of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, in Hendersonville, where a Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated by Father Matthew Bean on March 7, 2023, at 2:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

Highlands Cremation & Funeral Care is assisting the family.

“ Claire and Mike, we so wish we could be there with you at this time. I will always remember how jovial your Dad would be when we would visit all those years ago. Please celebrate his life and remember all of the wonderful things that he did. In addition to the flowers that will be at the church, we will make a donation to your chosen charity. Love to all of your family. Rosemarie and Steve Owen
