Rick was in Healthcare and the helping professions for most of his life. He began as a Firefighter/Paramedic with Orange County Fire and Rescue; he went on to become a Registered Nurse and worked in the Emergency Department at Mission Memorial Hospital until he was diagnosed with Plasmacytoma which forced his retirement.

In 1992, Rick married his wife, Gale Holm, and became an instant father to two pre-teen boys, Randy Michael Ganger and Timothy Ian Ganger. Rick and Gale had a child of their own, Alexander Wolfgang Holm in 1999. Rick and Gale were celebrating 30 years of marriage when he passed on December 5, 2022.

Rick is survived by his wife, Gale, his mother, Vernetta Holm, his sisters, Linda Arico and Amy Holm Stamey as well his children and grandchildren: Randy, Tim, and Alex as well as Cia and Max Ganger, Penelope Ganger, and Xander Ganger.

He was preceded in death by his brother, David Holm, and his father, Herbert William Holm.

Rick enjoyed skydiving, scuba diving, competitive shooting, and spending time on the water. He loved and was much loved by his pride of cats. Mostly, he loved his wife, children and grandchildren, and friends, who became his close confidants at the end.

“ I realize none of you know me but I knew Rick quite well. He was my roommate in college at Fla Tech in 77-78. And we remained friends while he was there. He was great guy, brave, smart, loyal, and not afraid to do what was right. I lost contact with him after he left I am not surprised that he went into the helping professions and became a nurse. I just kind of stumbled upon this obituary and I extend my sympathy to his family, I was quite fond of Rick and I am so sorry for your loss. He really was a super guy and I am very sorry to hear of his death. A lot of people miss him. Ronald A Jones, Summerfield, Florida

“ Gale and family members of Rick, I was so sorry to hear of Rick's passing. He was a wonderful person, friend, nurse and all round human being. He was also a pleasure to work with in A-2 at Mission. He will be missed by all who knew and was associated with him. May he rest in peace. God bless and comfort those he leaves here on this troubled earth until he welcomes us home once again.
