

Robert Francis Bongers

November 16, 1948 - October 11, 2024

Robert (Bob) Francis Bongers, 75, passed away on October 11, 2024, in Arden, NC.

Born on November 16, 1948 in Manchester, NH, Robert dedicated years of service to the US Coast Guard during the Vietnam conflict, demonstrating a commitment to his country. Following his military service, Robert embarked on a career as a truck driver and later as an automobile mechanic.

Robert is survived by his daughter, Wendy Bongers, and her partner, Kevin Ransom; granddaughters, Rowan and Sage Wing; son, Dana Bongers and his partner Jen Pellerin; sister, Sharon Dupuis; brother, Albert Bongers; wife, Judith (Couch) Bongers; stepchildren, Kristy and Jeremy Cote; dear friends, Drip McWhorter, Lindsey Morgan, and Mickey Baldwin; and his loyal and loving service dog, Lucy, alongside many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Roberta (Maple) and Lambert Bongers, and brother, John Bongers.

A military service will be held in his honor on November 6, 2024, at 2 pm at NH Veterans Cemetery, where friends, family, and military comrades can pay their respects.

“ Bob P.D. Bonkers worked for Sav-On Transportation. I managed the company. At first, not far from leaving Vietnam, in 1977, he was not the best driver. We called him P.D. "professional driver" Bongers. He became our best driver. Miss the old days
