“ I have many memories of Bobby. One time friends from work went to a cook out at his house. We were eating on the deck. One of the friends, Robin, sat in a chair that the leg had slipped off the deck (it wasn't a tall deck, thank goodness) she fell and the chair fell on her and her plate of food. We laughed (after we made sure she was ok) and laughed. She had baked beans on her forehead. Haha. The entire group of friends that hung out, ate lunch together and did things after work, laughed about that everytime we recalled it. We had so much fun back then. Seems like a lifetime ago. I hated when Bobby left but I certainly understood. Bobby was a fighter. A proud man. He truly was one of my best friends. I will miss him dearly. I sent him a recording one time of the Mercy Me song "if I could only imagine" it reminded me and still reminds me of Bobby. One passage goes "will I stand for you Jesus or on my knees will I fall" I know my friend is standing and whole again. Until we meet again my friend. I love you!
