“ My deepest condolences. I met Shirley at Bella Vista in July, 2012, when we moved my mom there. I always found her in the library deepest engrossed in a book; she read like a fiend!! She was best buddies with Jazbo (the bird) at Bella Vista, and a great ambassador for the facility. Always with a smile on her face, and so ready with a warm hug. She will be dearly missed.

“ I was lucky enough to meet Shirley in her acting class at OLLI in 2022. Her play about Jewish immigrants in the south is a brilliant work. She was an amazing presence.
