December 24, 1969 - December 19, 2025

Stephanie Williams McDonald, 55, of Arden, NC, passed away peacefully at home on Friday, December 19th, 2025, and entered her heavenly home. She was born in Buncombe County on December 24, 1969, and was a proud graduate of North Buncombe High School and AB-Tech. For 22 years, she worked in children's dentistry, making a lasting impact on the lives of many.

Stephanie is survived by her loving husband, Daniel, of the home; her mother, Cora Hagan, and stepfather, Bob, of Alexander, NC; her son, Dustin Shook, and his wife, Tori, along with her beloved grandchildren, Madden and Rumi, all of Mars Hill, NC. She also leaves behind her brother, Van Williams, and his wife, Karen, along with her niece, Felisha, and nephew, Steven, of Candler, NC. Stephanie was preceded in death by her father, Steve Williams, and her sister, Tammy Elaine Williams.

A woman of many talents, Stephanie was an avid gardener and crafter, bringing beauty and creativity to every season and every holiday. She had a special love for Christmas and enjoyed decorating to fill her home with warmth and joy. Her heart was large, and she gave it fully to her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, her family, friends, and her rescue cat, "RJ," who was always by her side.

Stephanie's favorite Bible verse, Psalm 46:10, "Be still, and know that I am God," was a reflection of the deep peace and faith she carried throughout her life.

She will be deeply missed by all who knew her, but her memory and love will live on in the hearts of those who were fortunate enough to have shared in her life.
