

Warren Edward Boo

October 23, 1949 - January 28, 2026

Warren Edward Boo passed away at his home in Hendersonville, North Carolina, at the age of 76.

Born in Manhattan, New York, Warren led a life filled with creativity, service, and community. A graduate of the Culinary Institutes of America, he was a talented chef who shared his culinary skills at Disney World and Epcot Center, bringing joy to countless guests. Warren was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed camping and hunting in his free time. Warren had a passion for collecting crystal and other treasured collectibles, and he generously volunteered his time at Safelight, the Sammy Williams Center, and Mountain Aging Partners, among other organizations.

Warren was a caring and generous soul, known for his warmth, humor, and dedication to others. He brought people together through his cooking, his volunteer work, and his love of community. Warren had a keen eye for beauty, reflected in his crystal and collectibles, and a heart that always sought to make the lives of others brighter. Though he faced private struggles, those who knew him remember his kindness, his laughter, and the joy he brought into the lives of everyone around him.

He was deeply loved by his many friends, as well as his church and community dining families.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 PM on March 14 at the Universalist Unitarian Fellowship, 2021 Kanuga Rd, Hendersonville, NC. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Mountain Aging Partners Community Dining Program, which Warren attended daily and supported wholeheartedly for many years.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

MAR 14. 2:00 PM (ET)

Universalist Unitarian Fellowship
2021 Kanuga Road
Hendersonville, NC 28739
office@uufhnc.org
<https://uufhnc.org/>