“ Uncle Bill has only been an uncle of mine for 30 years but I am so privileged to call him my Uncle! He welcomed both Elizabeth and me into his family with open arms! We have so many wonderful memories! His sense of humor was one of kind and all his one liners will be carried on through his LARGE family! My children were so blessed with wonderful moments through Camp Tomahawk and Apple Butter gatherings to name a few. Our hearts are saddened for Aunt Kate and the entire Crites family but I know that his room in heaven will be perfectly made out of the best lumbar and no more worries about the upcoming weather! Thank you, Uncle Bill for touching our family's lives! All our Love- Laura Given (daughter in law of Harry and Linda Given)
